On March 5, 2024, mail sent to plaintiff containing the Court's Scheduling Order dated February 20, 2024 (Doc. #64), was returned and marked "Not Deliverable as Addressed – Unable to Forward." The envelope also has a handwritten note reading "RTS 3rd time not signed for." (See attached).

This mailing was sent to plaintiff at the address listed on the docket and reflected on recent correspondence he has sent to the Court: Collins Correctional Facility, P.O. Box 340, Collins, New York 14034-430. (See Docs. #61–62). A search of the New York State DOCCS Inmate Lookup website indicates plaintiff is currently in custody at Collins Correctional Facility.

Plaintiff has another matter in this district, Pitt v. Librizzi, 23 CV 2842 (PMH), which is pending before Judge Halpern. The Court notes the docket in the Librizzi matter reflects that mail sent to plaintiff at the address above has also been recently returned undeliverable. The docket also suggests plaintiff has on occasion refused, failed to pick up, or failed to sign for legal mail.

It is plaintiff's obligation to provide a current address at which he can receive mail from the Court. Plaintiff is also obligated to take all steps necessary to ensure he receives and reviews his legal mail, including promptly signing for correspondence. If plaintiff fails to do so, the Court may dismiss this case for failure to prosecute and comply with Court orders, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

Chambers will mail a copy of this Order and an additional copy of the February 20, 2024, Scheduling Order to plaintiff at the address on the docket, which remains Collins Correctional Facility.

1. The first step is to identify the problem or question that needs to be addressed. This involves understanding the context and the specific requirements of the task.

2. Next, it is important to gather relevant information and data. This can be done through research, consultation with experts, or by analyzing existing resources.

3. Once the information is gathered, the next step is to develop a plan or strategy. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, manageable parts and determining the best approach to solve each part.

4. After the plan is developed, the next step is to implement the solution. This involves putting the plan into action and monitoring the progress to ensure that the solution is effective.

5. Finally, it is important to evaluate the results of the solution. This involves comparing the actual outcomes with the expected results and identifying any areas for improvement.
